“There is something about the outside of a horse that is good for the inside of a man.”

–Winston Churchill

In the equine industry, there are far too many transactions that are born with handshakes and result in litigation.

A LOCAL ATTORNEY WITH GOOD OL’ FASHIONED HORSE SENSE.

With 15 years of legal expertise, Steve Laman has the insight and experience to get the job done. Everything from contract negotiation to a non-paying boarder, he can help at an affordable price.

Steve understands that people and businesses may find themselves in litigation that is both expensive and unpredictable because they ventured into a situation without a written agreement or because they used an ambiguous or inadequate standard form agreement. Effectively communicating with his clients allows Steve to tailor his representation to the needs of the client.
