Colorado Horse Council Member, Steven D. Laman of McConaughy & Sarkissian, P.C., Is Now Providing Equine Legal Representation

McConaughy & Sarkissian, P.C. is pleased to announce it is now providing equine legal representation throughout the state of Colorado. Attorney Steve Laman, a long time Colorado resident and an avid horseman, is versed in the challenges facing equine professionals and horsemen in Colorado. Steve has successfully represented a diverse group of clients over the past 15 years. While his legal career has primarily focused on litigation, Steve also represents individuals and businesses in transactional matters. He understands that people and businesses often find themselves embroiled in litigation that is both expensive and unpredictable simply because they ventured into a situation without a written agreement, or because they used a standard form agreement that was ambiguous or inadequate. Effectively communicating with his clients allows Steve to tailor agreements to the individual needs of those clients.

When legal issues arise involving your horse or equine-related business, it is imperative that you receive competent legal advice. The issues can range from drafting equine-related contracts and agreements to liability for accidents involving your horse. Regardless of the legal circumstances you find yourself in, having an attorney representing your interests is important. Steve's knowledge of these areas of law will provide clients competent and efficient legal services and advice.

Steve received a Bachelor of Arts in Central and Eastern European Studies. In 1997, Steve received his Juris Doctorate from St. Louis University School of Law. Steve has been named to Colorado Super Lawyers Rising Star list. He is a member of the Colorado Bar Association, the Colorado Defense Lawyers Association, the Colorado Horse Council, and the Jefferson County Horse Council.
